All present were advised that the acquisition method being used for this procurement is Best Value Full-Trade-Off Source Selection Procedures and were advised to review Clause M.1 of the solicitation for more specific information. Potential offerors were advised that in order to be fair to all competitors, including those not currently present, all questions should be submitted in writing to the Contracting Officer. All parties were reminded that even if there are discussions about potential changes to this requirement, the solicitation package (including all attachments) remains unchanged unless it is formally changed by a solicitation amendment. Offerors were advised that use of cameras, video equipment or other recording devices were not permitted during the conference. Finally, the Contracting Officer advised attendees that the minutes from the conference, previously submitted questions and answers along with other SIR changes will be incorporated into a SIR amendment to be issued by approximately August 13, 2010.

Hard copies of Questions 1-60 along with corresponding Answers were provided to attendees. The Contracting Officer went through the questions with those present, pointing out specific questions that were asked by numerous potential offerors. The Contracting Officer asked those present to submit any follow-on questions as a result of the Questions and Answers provided during the conference by close of business on August 9, 2010.
